

RUSS GENTILE

Russ Gentile Is Veteran of Piano Keyboard

Russ Gentile, pianist appearing nightly at Adrien's, 1919 S. Pacific Ave., San Pedro, started his studies at the age of five. He is a graduate of Curtis Institute, where he was a pupil of Josef Hoffman.

Later he went on a scholarship to study for a year with Sergei Rachmaninoff, and then went on to study at the Royal Academy in London with Tobias Matthay, where he received his doctor's degree in music.

Some of his engagements in New York City included No. 1 Fifth Avenue, the Plaza Hotel, and the Pierre. During his military service, he played in London and Gloucester, where he did a command performance for the dowager Queen Mary. In Luxembourg he performed for the Grand Duchess Charlotte.

In California he played at the famous Roller Derby and the Sanborn House on Sunset Blvd. He has just completed a successful engagement at the Chit Chat Steak House.

Gentile is a member of the Los Angeles Pianist Club, under whose auspices he played Rachmaninoff piano concert at the Musician's Union last July. He is also a lecturer on Mozart and writes the pianists' column for the magazine Overture, the official organ of the Musicians' Association.

Drain Bonds on Market

The Board of Supervisors today authorized the sale of 1958 storm-drain bonds for $10,000,000 to finance the county's storm-drain program through the fall of 1960.

Marine Corps Open to Seniors

High-school seniors may enlist in the Marines now-but wait until graduation before going on active duty.

The time spent while finishing high school will go toward his total military obligation, and he can pick the day he wants to leave.

South Bay's Marine Corps Recruiting Office, in the Post Office building, Torrance, will be open on Monday, from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m., in honor of George Washington, to give those who have the day off a chance to receive information.
